Report on Intellectual Property Rights Seminar

Date of Event: March 10, 2023

Notice Date: March 3, 2023

Organized by: IQAC and Other Staff Members

1. Introduction: On March 10, 2023, a seminar on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) was successfully conducted, organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and supported by various staff members. The seminar aimed to enhance understanding of intellectual property laws, their significance, and their application in various fields.

2. Objectives

- To provide comprehensive insights into different types of intellectual property rights.
- To discuss the importance of IPR in fostering innovation and protecting creators' interests.
- To address challenges and practical issues related to IP enforcement.

3. Agenda and Sessions: The seminar was structured to cover various aspects of intellectual property rights through presentations and interactive discussions:

- Welcome Address and Introduction: The seminar commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Sandip Kumar Basak, who highlighted the importance of IPR and outlined the day's agenda.
- Keynote Presentation: Dr. Ramanuj Konar delivered the keynote presentation on the fundamentals of IPR. The presentation covered:
  - Definitions and types of IP (Patents, Trademarks, Copyrights, Trade Secrets).
  - The significance of IPR in the global economy and innovation.
  - Legal frameworks and enforcement mechanisms.
- Interactive Session: An interactive session allowed participants to ask questions, share their experiences, and discuss practical concerns related to IP management and protection.
- 5. Conclusion: The seminar on Intellectual Property Rights held on March 10, 2023, was a successful event that achieved its objectives of educating and engaging participants on the crucial topic of IPR. The collaboration between IQAC and the staff members facilitated a well-organized and informative session that contributed to the professional development of all involved.
