As per the announcement of the Honourable Chief Minister, Govt. of West Bengal on 26th August, 2020 the college will remain closed till 20th September, 2020 to combat spreading of Novel Corona Virus (COVID-19) in public interest.

However, the administrative, examination/admission related works, some essential services e.g. electricity, cleanliness, water supply, security etc. may remain functional under strict COVID-19 protocol and extent guidelines to be issued by the institute as per requirement.

No visitor should be allowed during the period to visit the college, without prior permission of the competent authority.

Moreover, the under-signed is requesting all the teaching faculties to continue their online teaching-learning process and other academic activities for the benefits of our students during this crisis period.

Wishing you all good health and stay safe
